AWARD

(Passed on this 14th day of September, 2009)

1. The Party I was working for the Party II as a captain. He was issued a charge sheet for committing acts subversive of discipline and wilful insubordination during working hours. The Party I had replied to the said charge sheet. Not being satisfied with the reply given, enquiry was initiated against the Party I. Shri R. Lobo was appointed as an Inquiry Officer. He conducted the enquiry and submitted the report wherein he held the Party I guilty of the misconduct stated in the charge sheet. The Party I was issued notice to show cause on the proposed punishment and subsequently vide order dated 30-9-99 the Party I was dismissed from service.

2. The Party I had raised an Industrial Dispute. The conciliation proceedings initiated by the Labour Commissioner ended in failure. On receipt of the failure report the appropriate Government being Government of Goa, by order dated 8-8-2000 referred the following dispute for adjudication of the Tribunal:

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Whispering Palms Beach

Resort, Candolim, Bardez, Goa, in terminating the services of Shri Patricino Rodrigues, Captain, with effect from 30-9-99, is legal and justified?

- (2) If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

3. Notices were issued to both parties. Pursuant to which the Party I filed claim statement at Exb. 3. The written statement is at Exb. 5. and the rejoinder is at Exb. 6.

4. The Party I has stated that he had put in seven years of service with the Party II and that his last designation was as a Captain and last drawn salary was Rs. 3000/- per month. The Party I has stated that the charge sheet which was issued to him was not signed by the competent authority. The Party I has further stated that the enquiry was conducted in violation of the principles of natural justice. The Party I has further stated that the Party II had not examined the complainant Shri Kerkar who had lodged the complaint against him and that the only witness who was examined by the management was a planted witness and that he could not have been held guilty on the evidence of the said witness. The Party I has stated that the dismissal order is illegal, malafide and by way of victimization for his union activities. The Party I has therefore sought reinstatement with back wages and continuity of service.

5. The Party II has stated that the Party I was appointed as a steward and was subsequently promoted as a Captain which is a supervisory post in grade IV scale. The Party II has stated that the duties performed by the Party I were of supervisory nature and as such the Party I is not a workman within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the Industrial Dispute Act. The Party II has further stated that on 16-5-97 at 9.45 a.m. the Party I entered the cabin of the General Manager, Kiran Kerkar and submitted an application for advance of Rs. 2000/-, said Kiran Kerkar verified the bank position from the Accounts Officer, Anthony Fernandes and thereafter informed the Party I that he could not be given advance as the payment of the service charges to the workers had to be made on 20-5-97. It is alleged that the Party I got angry and snatched away the application and abused Shri Kerkar in filthy words and went towards the dummy counter and continued abusing Mr. Kerkar. It is stated that on hearing the abuses Mr. Kerkar went to the restaurant and requested the Party I to abstain from abusing him as there were guests/clients in the hotel. Thereupon the Party I repeated the abuses loudly and went towards Mr. Kiran Kerkar in an aggressive manner. Some of the officers/executives who were in the restaurant intervened and instructed the Party I to behave properly as there were guests in the restaurant. Despite this the Party I continued hurling abuses in presence of guests and officers. On receipt of the complaint and report dated 17-5-1997 from Kiran Kerkar the Party I was issued a charge sheet for committing serious acts of misconduct. The reply given by the Party I was far from satisfactory hence an enquiry was ordered. The enquiry officer was appointed and the Party I was given full opportunity to defend himself effectively. The Party II has stated that the charge sheet and the notice were issued by the competent authority. The Party II has further stated that the enquiry was conducted in consonance with the principles of natural justice. The enquiry officer had submitted the report holding the Party I guilty of the charges levelled against him and considering the gravity of the misconduct, the Party I was dismissed from service vide order dated 30-9-1999 which was signed by the competent authority. The Party II has stated that the findings of the enquiry officer are based on material on record and that the dismissal order is just and proper. The Party II has therefore stated that the Party I is not entitled for any reliefs.

6. Based on the aforesaid pleading the issues at Exb. 7 were framed. The said issues were recast and the said recast issues are as under:

1. Whether the inquiry conducted against the Party I is against principles of natural justice?
- 1A. Whether the charges levelled against the Party I are proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal by acceptable evidence?
2. Whether the Party I is a workman as defined under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
3. Whether termination of service of the Party I by the Party II w.e.f. 30-9-99 is legal and justified?
4. Whether the Party I is entitled for reinstatement in service with full back wages and with continuity in service?
5. What Award?

7. Issues No. 1, 1A and 2 were treated as preliminary issues. Parties had adduced evidence and also advanced arguments on the said issues. Findings were given on the preliminary issues by order dated 17-03-2009 wherein it has been held that the Party I is a workman within the meaning of Sec. 2(s) of the Act. It is further held that the inquiry conducted against the Party I is fair and proper and that the charges levelled against the Party I are proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal by acceptable evidence.

8. Parties were called upon to adduce evidence on issues No. 3 and 4. The Party I has not adduced any evidence nor advanced arguments despite opportunities given. Learned advocate, Shri Kundaikar has filed written arguments which are at Exb. 16. I have perused the records and considered the arguments advanced by Learned advocate, Shri Kundaikar and my findings on issues No. 3 and 4 are as under:

9. Issue Nos. 3 & 4: There is no dispute that u/s 11A, the Industrial Tribunal or the Labour Court has ample jurisdiction to decide the question relating to quantum of punishment, but as reiterated by the Apex Court in the case of V. P. Gadhe and Ors. v/s G. M. Gujarat Amhuj Cement Pvt. Ltd. AIR 2008 SC 99 "the power u/s 11A has to be exercised judiciously and the Industrial Tribunal or the Labour Court as the case may be is expected to interfere with the decision of the management u/s 11A of the Act only when it is satisfied that punishment imposed by the management is wholly and shockingly disproportionate to the degree of guilty of the workman concerned. To support its conclusion the Industrial Tribunal or the Labour Court as the case may be, has to give reasons in support of its decision. The power has to be exercised judiciously and mere use of words 'disproportionate' or 'grossly disproportionate' by itself will not be sufficient. In recent times, there is an increasing evidence of this, perhaps well-meant but wholly unsustainable, tendency towards a denudation of the legitimacy of judicial reasoning and process. The reliefs granted by the Courts must be seen to be logical and tenable within the framework of the law and should not incur and justify the criticism that the jurisdiction of the Courts tends to degenerate into misplaced sympathy, generosity and private benevolence. It is essential to maintain the integrity of legal reasoning and the legitimacy of the conclusions. They must emanate logically from the legal findings and the judicial results must be seen to be principled and supportable on those findings. Expansive judicial mood of mistaken and misplaced compassion at the expense of the legitimacy of the process will eventually lead to mutually irreconcilable situations and denude the judicial process of its dignity, authority, predictability and respectability. [See: Kerala Solvent Extractions Ltd. v. A Unnikrishnan and Anr. (1994 (1) SCALE 631)].

Through under Section 11-A, the Tribunal has the power to reduce the quantum of punishment, it has to be done within the parameters of law. Possession of power is itself not sufficient; it has to be exercised in accordance with law. These aspects were highlighted in Life Insurance Corporation of India v. R. Dhandapani (AIR 2006 SC 615).

Power and discretion conferred under the section needless to say have to be exercised judicially and judiciously. The Court exercising such power and finding the misconduct to have been proved has to first advert to the question of necessity or desirability to interfere with the punishment imposed and if the employer does not justify the same on the circumstances, thereafter to consider the relief that can be granted. There must be compelling reason to vary the punishment and it should not be done in a casual manner."

10. In the instant case, the charges against the Party I were that on 16-05-1997, while General manager, Mr. K. Kerkar was on duty, the Party I had entered his cabin and had abused him in filthy words threatened him and had gone aggressively towards Mr. Kerkar in the presence of other staff and guests of the hotel. The said act of misconduct are held to be proved. These charges are grave and serious in nature. The Party I has not adduced any evidence to prove existence of any mitigating circumstances which require reduction of the punishment. In the case of the Management of Tournamulla Estate v/s. Workmen (1973) 2 SCC 502, the apex court has held that if the workman is guilty of a serious misconduct such as acts of violence against the management or disorderly behaviour in or near the place of employment, which though not directly causing damage, is conducive to grave indiscipline and such grave misconduct calls for stringent punishment. The ratio laid down in the aforesaid case amply applies to the facts of the present case. In my considered view condoning the acts of the Party I will undermine the discipline in the organization.

11. As stated earlier there is absolutely no evidence on record to prove that the punishment imposed on Party I is illegal or shockingly disproportionate and hence, the order passed by the Party II cannot be said to be illegal and unjustified. Consequently, this is not a fit case to invoke powers u/s 11 A of the Act to interfere with the punishment of dismissal. Hence, the issue Nos. 3 & 4 are answered in the negative.

Under the circumstances and in view of discussion supra, I pass the following order.

ORDER

The Party I has failed to prove that the action of the management in terminating the services w.e.f. 30-09-1999 is illegal or unjustified. The Party I is not entitled for any relief.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.

Department of Mines
Office of the Secretary (Mines)

Order

No. 96/389/88/IIR-Mines/1953

Whereas, late Shri Raia Porob Baticar was holder of erstwhile mining concession for iron and manganese ore granted under T. C. No. 8 of 5-2-1954 covering an area of 43.2 ha. of land situated in village Mangal of Quepem taluka.

And whereas, consequent upon the enactment of the Goa, Daman and Diu Mining Concessions (Abolition & Declaration as Mining Leases) Act, 1987, the above mining concession stood abolished and declared as Mining Lease under the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957.

And whereas, by an application dated 24-11-1988 Shri Raia Porob Baticar (hereinafter referred to as the "applicant") applied for renewal of mining lease for a period of 10 years for an area of 30.64 ha.

And whereas, as the application could not be disposed off within a period of 6 months the same resulted in a deemed refusal.

And whereas, the applicant filed a revision application before the Central Government against the order of deemed refusal and the Central Government vide its final order dated 21-8-89 set aside the order of deemed refusal and directed the State Government to dispose of the application on merits within a period not exceeding 200 days.

And whereas, during the pendency of the application the lessee expired leaving behind his wife and 8 children.

And whereas, by a Notice No. 96/389/88-Mines/10178 dated 10-2-1999 Smt. Jeevan R. Baticar and the legal heirs were called upon to furnish the following documents:-

1. Valid Clearance Certificate in terms of Rule 22(3)(d) of M.C. Rules, 1960.
2. Statement of consent towards surface rights in terms of Rule 22(3)(h) of M.C. Rules, 1960.
3. Copy of succession deed and/or inventory proceedings.

And whereas, as there was no response a fresh notice was issued on 12-3-2001 which was returned by the postal authorities with the remarks "unclaimed".

And whereas, during the pendency of the application the area came to be included in the Netravali Wild Life Sanctuary and in terms of a communication sent by the Ministry of Environment & Forests Government of India addressed to Secretary (Forests) of all the States it was brought to the notice that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has restrained all the States from ordering even the removal of dead, deceased, dying or wind fallen trees and grasses etc. from any National Park or Sanctuary. The State Government by an Order dated 24-11-2003 directed the lessee to stop mining operations as directed by the Central Empowered Committee constituted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India vide Order dated 9-5-2002 in Civil Writ Petition No. 202/95 and 171/96. The present position is therefore that no mining operations can be conducted in the above mining lease area.

And whereas, by a notice bearing No. 96/389/88-Mines/352 dated 8-5-07 the matter was fixed for a personal hearing on 14-5-2007 on which date one Shri Shrikant R. Baticar delivered a letter in the entry section without attending the personal hearing. The letter made a mention that he has obtained valid clearance certificate. However there has been no submission on the part of the lessee to the directions of the Central Empowered Committee appointed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

And whereas, in view of the standing order of the Government stopping the mining operations in this area following the directives of the Central Empowered Committee appointed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court no purpose will be served in processing this case as the State Government is prevented from allowing any activity within the Wild Life Sanctuary area.

Now, therefore, I, Raajiv Yaduvanshi, Secretary (Mines), Government of Goa in exercise of the powers conferred upon me vide Notification No. 5/80/89-Mines dated 17-11-1989 hereby reject the application dated 24-11-1988 for renewal of mining lease for further period.
